Creating and designing unique and beautiful jewelry is The Pink Locket's forte. These pieces are not only just jewelry but more so a reflection of women's personalities and culture. From the various colors used to the various mediums, each piece is uniquely named and described based on the artist's inspiration. The Pink Locket designs the following jewelry pieces:

- Necklaces
- Rings
- Bracelets
- Earrings
- Clutches

In addition to designing jewelry, the company also hosts three Jewelry Soirees a year where the next season's collection is launched and exhibited for the first time prior to being release on The Pink Locket website. The Pink Locket customers are also welcome to host jewelry parties of their own if requested.

The newest launches for the fall include the new Pink Glory Ring in honor of Breast Cancer Awareness and Violet's Ivy collection of jewelry reminiscent of the new age 1920s.
